

Voting – 2024 People's Choice Top Games With Two

CONSENT FORM

ヽ(o ^ ∇ ^ o)ノ

Welcome and thank you for participating in our yearly board games survey! Please, read the following information carefully before proceeding.

Purpose of the Survey:

This survey collects your ranked list of top 20 favorite board games, gaming-related preferences, and general participation insights that will help me to better monitor the state of the initiative.

Use of Data:

Your ranked list of top 20 games will be anonymized and published in our public archive on GitHub. Aggregated results will also be available on BoardGameGeek. Data about gaming-related preferences will only be shared in aggregated form (e.g., percentages or trends) without any identifying information. A selection of the remaining items will be used, in aggregated form, to prepare a short report once everything is wrapped up.

Confidentiality:

No personally identifiable information will be stored. Your responses will be treated with care to ensure your anonymity. By proceeding with the survey, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this information and agree to participate.

For any question, feel free to send a GeekMail directly to Dr_Bewd on BGG.

Section A1 – The top 20

In this section, you have to vote for at least 5 games. As long as you like to play the game with 2 players, the game is eligible. This is not limited to 2 player-only games or to games published this year. Please, use the official name of the game and avoid ambiguous abbreviations. If there are multiple editions or versions of the game that you're voting for, vote for your favorite one. If you want to submit a separate top 20 for your partner, you'll be able to do so on the next page. Many voters like using pubmeeple.com to formulate their top 20. If you're having a hard time finalizing your list, give it a try.
